The amendment clarified the conference fee is $325.00. Two options for early bird registration for the CSOTTE Conference – if registered by September 22, 2013 the fee is $250.00, and if registered by October 10, 2013 the fee is $275.00.

4. Emerging Scholars Report

Dana Pemberton (TACTE) informed the CSOTTE board that TACTE will sponsor the Emerging Scholars Track. The process of establishing the chair and co-chair of the Emerging Scholars track for the CSOTTE Conference will be discussed at the CSOTTE board meeting in September. Dana suggested the co-chair be someone from the area where the conference will be held. The rationale is the need for additional adult support at the Emerging Scholars track during the conference.

Dana mentioned TACTE would take care of registration of the emerging scholars at the conference. Dr. Miazga will contact Elda Martinez to adjust the conference material. Brian Miller suggested CSOTTE board work toward the publication of the material in one location as opposed to several sites.

Dana requested two rooms if possible at the convention site. Pam Tipton informed the board that two rooms have been designated for the Emerging Scholars, one for 100 students and one for 30 students. It was mentioned the reservations of these two rooms would result in fewer presentations.

Dana concluded by indicating there appears to be strong interests among the universities to encourage pre-service candidates seeking initial teacher certification to attend the conference and to participate in the poster presentation.

5. Financial Report – Pam Tipton, Executive Secretary

a. Financial report as of April 30, 2013 was presented:

❖ Checking Balance	❖ $5,578.67

❖ Time Account Balance	❖ $19,975.14
❖ Total Assets	❖ $26,676.86

Art Hernandez made the motion to approve the financial report as presented with a seconded by Kathleen Vinger. The motion passed unanimously.

Pam was to research the feasibility of moving the money from the CD account to an alternative savings plan where withdrawals would not result in penalties. She reported the 26-month Time Account (CD) matures 11/6/2013. The current interest rate if renewed is 0.4% (may change in November). The Market Rate Savings' interest rate is 0.05%. The board will discuss the CD account further in September.

Pam presented a working budget for the 2013-2014 CSOTTE Organization, based on the following estimated income and expense categories:

❖ Income	❖ Proposed Budget
❖ Conference Registration	❖ $97,579
❖ Conference Vendor Support	❖ $12,500
❖ Organizational Dues	❖ $1,600
❖ Other	❖ $1

Art Hernandez moved to accept the budget as proposed with compliments to Pam on a job well done, and a second from Grant Simpson. The motion passed unanimously.

Further conversations dealt with the cost of CVENT. Pam is to do additional research with other vendors who can provide the same service, but at a reduced rate. The CSOTTE board has decided to use CVENT through the 2013 Conference.

b. Grant Simpson, Mike Rosato, and Kathleen Vinger volunteered to serve as the audit committee, The audit report will be completed prior to the continuation of the CSOTTE board meeting on May 22, 2013.

c. Pam reported information needed for IRS 990 has been obtained.

6. Website updates/evaluation/change report

Pam Tipton reviewed the websites and pointed out the updates. Updates to the various organizations are to be sent to Pam. Once all items regarding the CSOTTE Conference are finalized, the information will be placed on the Website. The board is to look over the website for accuracy of the information.

7. 2012 Conference – Final Report

a. Finances/Attendance were reviewed and presented in comparative format from 2009 through 2012 by Brian Miller. The 2013 conference will be held in San Antonio at the Omni with rooms contracted at 20/225/225 for the three days of the conference. Brian indicated Diane Everett (TAHPERD) would continue to share her expertise in securing venues for conferences with Pam Tipton.

b. John Miazga gave a brief overview of the evaluation from the attendees at the last conference. Of the 119 responders 36% indicated the educational content exceeded their expectations. Further discussion focused on the types of questions asked on the evaluation form and the 11 open-ended questions. The evaluation is done at the conclusion of the conference via CVENT, and is sent to the attendees. Pam indicated there is a limit to how many questions CVENT will permit on an evaluation form. She will check with CVENT to determine the limitations surrounding the evaluation. Further discussion to improve the return of the evaluations was entertained by the board, i.e., a drawing for free registration if they respond. Another discussion dealt with the use of the QR Code to secure electronic handouts from the presenters. Also the possible use of an electronic screen detailing the morning and afternoon sessions for each day of the conference.

8. SBEC/TEA Update

Grant Simpson reported that Janice Lopez is no longer with the Texas Education Agency. TEA is now in the hands of gubernatorial appointees; consequently, the process will be slowed.

TEXES testing for students will be $120 for each exam. All tests must be passed, if not, the students will have to retake all of the tests again at the same price. Number of questions has been increased on each exam.

9. Conference 2013 Planning

a. Omni San Antonio at the Colonnade – Forging the Future – program cover was selected.

b. Conference Call for Proposal – change the picture of the Alamo to the new graphic design on the webpage. The decision to add, “incomplete proposals will not be reviewed” to the directions for submission was approved

d. CVENT Registration website was reviewed. Practice runs were made by a few board members, which indicated the process worked.

e. Speakers - John Miazga indicated by September all things would be ready for the conference. He mentioned Intercultural Development Research Association will provide a speaker (General Session I), and the second speaker (General Session II) who is Phi Delta Kappa emerging scholar. The young man is Dan Quinn a high school social studies teacher and an entrepreneur in educational policy at the Great Lakes Center for Education Research and Practice. His fee for speaking may only be his travel from NY and back to his home in Michigan. At the luncheon on Monday( General Session III), the awards are the focus.

Amanda Rudolph will continue checking on the entertainment for the luncheon on Monday (General Session III).

Tuesday Session, General Session IV, TACA/TACO representatives sent invitations to Michelle Moore (Ann Smisko) Marilyn Cook ( David Carmody), and Norma Torres Martinez (Janice Lopez) to speak at the conference with no response to date. During the CSOTTE meeting, Grant Simpson texted Michelle Moore about the invitation, she replied, she would visit with him upon return from Atlanta.

Further discussions ensued about other speakers, such as the Mayor of San Antonio, the commissioner, etc.

f. Sponsors/Donors/Vendors/Exhibitors, etc.

Brian Miller advised the board of past attempts to secure sponsorships, etc. The purpose of sponsorships, vendors, and exhibitors is to help defray the cost of the conference, which is estimated at $100,000. A healthy discussion pursued. A brief representative of what was discussed:

2. Extend branding rights for the conference for a set fee extending over three years
3. Changing structure of requesting sponsorship, possibly offer a silver, gold, or platinum sponsorship categories

6. Media releases to advertise for sponsorship; purpose of CSOTTE organization, etc.

g. Door Prizes – Conference Registration – TACO

Registration System Information

After comparing 3 conference registration systems, CVENT, RegOnline, and Eventbrite, I propose that we change registration systems to RegOnline after conference and follow-up surveys, November 25th. Some RegOnline features:

- Use fee is $3.16 per registration (if pre-paid 700 registrations, that's $2,212.00/year rather than $5000 or $7.50 per registration). Another option is for registrants to pay a fee when they register. I didn't think our participants would appreciate that????
- 1 year contract (rather than a 3 year auto renewing contract with CVENT, which requires a written 60 day cancellation [by December 1, 2013])
- RegOnline provides credit card processing at 3.75%. Currently we are charged ~7.6% (5.05% plus additional fees) through a Wells Fargo Merchant account. There will be no additional service fee for our business bank account if we drop the merchant account. We had a 3-year contract with WF Merchant, but it has expired. We can cancel now without penalty.
- They include a free mobile event app (can upload our program for breakout pre-selection and participants get a customized schedule before and during the conference. If participants register for the conference prior to the program details, we send out a blast email for them to select their breakout sessions. Session waitlist availability. (This would eliminate the need for a separate eConference website with its associated costs).
- Etc etc!

I also researched small business checking and savings accounts at several banks. I propose that we stay with Wells Fargo, moving our CD savings into a Money Market Saving Account, for the time being. At some point, we may wish to change banks (perhaps to Citi Bank). When we change banks, I suggest we move in February so the retreat and conference transactions will not be impacted.
